

Regarding the examinations (Selection process)

“Fellowship program to foster architects who lead super-smart society with co-creating innovative solutions to “X-Care” social issues”

“Fellowship program to foster international Ph.D. holding researchers through materials innovations”

“Nambu-Einstein Fellowship Program”

2021.5.

FS Support Office

Examinations (Selection process)

[Schedule]

- Selections in all program categories take place in early-March, 2022
- The result will be notified in mid-March or late-March
- The application guidelines will be open in December

Selection Component	allotment of marks	Outlines
Essay exam	100 points	Write an essay addressing each of the following points on the answer sheet provided. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Give a summary of your research for people who are not specialized in the field. Also, explain how it can bring solutions to social/technological issues.• Write the transferrable skills(*) you would like to acquire and the reasons, as well as how you intend to develop them.• Provide your thought/idea about your own career path after finishing a Ph.D. course and how you would like to be active or make a positive contribution to society.
Interview exam	100 points	Give a presentation about your essay (7 minutes). Q&A session will be followed after your presentation (13 minutes).

※ What “transferrable skills” mean here in this project:

Portable/applicable skills which are required for innovative talents, such as: originality, ability to think outside the box, challenge mindset, ability to discover in-demand research topics, research management skills, communication skills and leadership skills.

[Assessment]

Examinations are assessed using rubrics.

*The criteria will be open in advance.